A Note of Thanks
This being the First Sunday of Advent and the New Liturgical Year, I would like to thank my Liturgical Committee for all the work they do: Organizing the list of people for the liturgy. Putting the opening and petitions together. Getting things ready for the liturgy, making sure everyone is there to fill their roles and then putting things back after mass. Taking care of our Annual Special Devotions. Music by Susan. Decorations by Marie and Emily. Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, Greeters, Servers and those that clean the church. The liturgical committee members are: Father John, Theresa Watters, Teresa Minton, Susan Muszynski, Cindy Notter, Evelyn Duffin, Alice Murray and myself.

All the time and energy involved makes things go smoothly, beautifully and meaningfully! May God Bless You for All You Do. Teresa Fruth
Five Weekends this Month
There will be a second collection.
Mark Your Calendars For a Work Day Saturday, December 13. All ages can help with the cleanup of the church grounds.
Vocations Corner
“I had the great blessing of growing up in a family in which faith was lived in a simple, practical way. However, it was my paternal grandmother in particular who influenced my journey of faith. She was a woman who explained to us, who talked to us about Jesus, who taught us the catechism. The first proclamation is at home, in the family! One day in particular, though, was very important to me: Sept. 21, 1953. I was almost 17. It was “Students’ Day.” Before going to the celebration, I passed through the parish I normally attended, I found a priest that I did not know, and I felt the need to go to confession. For me this was an experience of encounter: I found that someone was waiting for me After making my confession, I felt something had changed. I was not the same. I had heard something like a voice, or a call. I was convinced that I should become a priest.”
